in criminal cases are those prescribed in Form 20 of the Cape Civil Comrs. Pro: No. 2717/18-2 d/4/2/79, which are as follow:—

"For extra duties thus devolving on the Public Prosecutor in addition to what has hitherto been required of him, remuneration shall be made by fees; the minimum fees will be £0.6 when called upon for an opinion, and £0.32 when called upon to appear in Court otherwise than to conduct prosecutions before the Court of Sessions or to support convictions on appeal in the Court of the Judl Comrs."

In Servants Pro: No. 1162-66 d/30/12/86, the fee of £0.32 allowed in the above mentioned Pro: for supporting convictions has been reduced to £0.16/-

In his Bill under reference Mr. Rama Row states that he conducted the Almoya Bribery case on further trial before the Special Magistrate Kadiresan and not before a special Sessions Court. The fee of £0.32 per each appearance claimed by Mr. Rama Row is therefore allowable under the Pro: of February 1879

This is the minimum fee & not the rate of fee payable for each appearance. Note
